VALENTA ASKS EMPLOYMENT

Appointment of committees for the year featured the meeting of the Village board Tuesday night. Mayor George Bartlett was sworn into office, and J. B. Drom, H. P. Lowry and Charles Lux sat as trustees for the first time. Mr. Bartlett served as mayor twice before.

Mr. Bartlett retained all former members of the board for the committees on which they have been serving. E. M. Runyard will again serve as village attorney. Simon Simonsen is to continue as marshal. Dr. H. F. Beebe and the president of the board will constitute the health commission.

Appointments follow: lights and lighting—Charles Lux, R. L. Murrie, and H. J. Vos; finance—E. O. Hawkins, H. J. Vos, and J. B. Drom; sewer and water—R. L. Murrie, H. P. Lowry, and Charles Lux; street and alley—H. P. Lowry, E. O. Hawkins, and J. B. Drom; auditing and salaries—H. J. Vos and E. O. Hawkins; license and licensing—Charles Lux, H. J. Vos, and H. P. Lowry; fire marshal, James Stearns; engineer, J. A. Tolson (to complete work started); water and sewer—M. M. Burke; and building commissioner, R. R. Corrin.

Regarding Policeman

Frank Valenta, who last year served as motorcycle policeman for the village visited Mayor Bartlett this week asking if he would be re-employed. Mr. Valenta stated that he may be employed by the state. Mayor Bartlett wrote today to Secretary of State William Stratton declaring that the village does not have enough money to pay for Mr. Valenta's services; that Mr. Valenta did effective and valuable work here last summer; an asking if Mr. Valenta could be given employment by the state to serve as a patrol in Antioch and neighboring towns.

Special meeting of the board has been called for May 15 at 8 o'clock. An ordinance regarding the Lake street extension will be discussed.

Legion Posts Attend District Meeting; Plans Made For Poppy Day

The last Eighth District meeting of The American Legion was held at Great Lakes Naval station, with the local posts acting as hosts.

The meeting was exceptionally well attended, despite the inclement weather.

Two guests of honor were present, Bill Mundt, the new State Adjutant, and Jim White, State Chairman of Child Welfare committee. Bill Mundt spoke forcibly on the five points in obtaining and holding members; Jim White gave an interesting talk on the Child Welfare Work of the Legion in Illinois. His talk was also most informative, and impressed his listeners with a sense of pride and privilege that they have a part in this wonderful work which the Legion is doing in providing homes for those children who have been left in their care.

Poppy Day plans were discussed, and it was decided that individual posts, wherever possible, set Poppy Days for May 29 and 30, as designated by the state.

The next district meeting will be held at Sharvin Post home in North Chicago Friday evening, May 17.

CHICAGO YOUTH NAMED DEFENDANT AFTER ACCIDENT

Charges of reckless driving have been filed against Stanley Cozel, Chicago, by J. Stowe, Waukegan. The case will be heard at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the court of Police Magistrate Harold Gelstrup.

The filing of charges followed an accident Sunday afternoon in which cars driven by Stowe and Cozel figured. The accident occurred on Main street at the corner where the Hill-top tea room is situated. Neither machine was badly damaged.

Upholds Amateur Athletics

Mr. Avery Brundage, the forceful leader of the A. A. U., who has taken drastic steps toward clearing the name of his organization from any taint of professionalism. The first step was the release of college athletes from A. A. U. jurisdiction and placing them under direction of the National Collegiate Athletic association. Brundage further declared his determination to run down all traces of violation of amateur rules by athletes supposedly performing for sport and not commercially.

Chain O' Lakes Boasts Best Publicity Folders At Out-Door Show

Thousands of visitors at the great out-door exposition being held this week in the Coliseum in Chicago are being handed fifty two-color folders that tell the story of the lake country of northern Illinois, and the advertising is pronounced by experts to be the most concise and best piece of publicity literature being distributed at the Coliseum.

Copy for the folder was written by Philip Creden, of the Outing and Recreation bureau, Chicago, and V. Ladel Boden and H. B. Gaston of the Antioch News staff. Art work was by staff artists of the Outing and Recreation bureau, and engraving was by the Triangle Engraving company, Chicago. Design and copy will be protected by copyright.

Final copy and cuts were in the office of the Antioch News the morning of April 30, and Wednesday night, May 1, the first lot of 12,000, of the two-color folders was ready for delivery. Two days later the entire job, 40,000, was off the press. More than 30,000 are being used for Chain O' Lakes advertising and 10,000 for individuals.

The Antioch News is proud of having delivered this big job on time. The feat further establishes the reputation of the News as a house of service and goes to prove the truth of the local plant slogan—"No job too small, none too large."

A. B. C. WILL MEET LATER IN MONTH

Because of the recital to be given in the Methodist church Monday night, the meeting of the Antioch Business club has been postponed until one week later, May 20. This announcement was made by C. L. Kuttl, club president. The program will be announced later.

Mere Woman Checks Up on Thirty Men Who Leave Home and Journey in Special Car to Wicked City

By V. L. B.

No, no, Marguerite, don't think for a minute that the Antioch men who went to the Out-Door show Tuesday night were a gang of sleepy-eyed, quiet mortals. "Taint so. Thirty men (and an occasional woman) filled the motor coach with cigarette smoke, cigar smoke, and snatches of something which might have been called music.

And speaking of music! Bob Aht seemed to think it most proper and fitting to sing opera. Ah, yes! Ahhh hhhhhh! The Sextette from Lucia, the Quartette from Rigoletto, or whatever was attempted, the bus echoed with notes, tones, and what-nots heretofore equalled only by Tito Schippa, Gigli, or Marion Talley.

Then Homer Winch, who surely enjoys his singing, felt that he simply must demonstrate his ability to yodel, so he amused himself thusly until Walter Scott (direct descendant of Sir Walter) got it into his head that he, too, could yodel. Soon everyone had the bug—and a yodeling good time was had by all.

SOPRANO AND VIOLINIST WILL APPEAR MONDAY IN ANTIOCH CONCERT

Well-known in Antioch and a former resident here, Bertha James Carrell, soprano, will be a welcome guest here when she returns to give a concert in the Methodist Episcopal church Monday night, May 13. She will be assisted by Rudolph Mangold, concertmeister of the Chicago Opera orchestra and formerly guest conductor of the Chicago Theatre orchestra.

Mr. Mangold has recently returned from a tour and is coming to Antioch during his vacation season. During the winter he has done all the solo work in the operas and has received favorable criticism in many leading metropolitan papers of Chicago, Columbus, Ohio; Jackson, Mississippi; Sacramento, California, and others.

Within the last month Mr. Mangold has been giving concerts in Chicago. He was soloist with the "Little Symphony" at the Art Institute. Last Sunday he played at the Edgewater Beach hotel and in the evening radio-casted from KYW.

Mrs. Carrell has just been engaged for six Chicago women's club meetings to be held in the fall. Included in her engagements are the Illinois Athletic club, and the Englewood Arche club. During the last month she appeared before the Illinois Women's Athletic club, gave a recital at the Chicago Musical college and last Saturday sang before a society composed of the men who constructed and designed the Panama Canal.

Mrs. Carrell has been composing songs and will soon present a program of her own compositions before a writers' club.

WOOL FLAG IS GIVEN ANTIOCH HIGH SCHOOL BY HOME EC GIRLS

Irene Walsh Makes The Presentation Speech At Chapel.

Presentation of a wool flag was made by the Home Economics club of Antioch Township High school at chapel services Tuesday morning. The flag was presented by Irene Walsh, president of the club, and was accepted by L. O. Bright in behalf of the school.

Helen Petersen gave a story of the flag. The pledge of allegiance was recited by the students with Leonard Krahl leading.

The flag is a wool one with a gold eagle and standard, and stands 11 feet from the floor. The girls earned the money and bought the flag under the leadership of Mrs. Ruby Richey, home economics teacher.

During the same chapel services C. L. Kuttl, instructor of agriculture, presented $60 worth of shrubbery, trees, and plants to the community. The boys in the department of agriculture will set out the various kinds of plant life and care for them, which will in turn beautify the community.

Large Crowds Are Impressed By Chain O' Lakes Exhibition At Chicago Out-Door Life Show

ANTIOCH STUDENTS WILL HELP STAGE FESTIVAL OF MUSIC

Orchestra and Glee Club Go to Bensenville May 20

Orchestra and Glee club members of the Antioch Township High school are busy preparing for the Music Festival to be held in Bensenville May 20, with all schools in the Northwest conference participating.

The 10 schools associated in this conference are undertaking the most comprehensive Music Festival ever attempted. The Festival will bring together all of the members of the music groups into five large organizations. There will be representatives from all schools taking part, resulting in a band of 150 pieces, an orchestra of 125, a boys' glee club of 80, a girls' glee club of 125, and a chorus of 200.

Director Is To Help

The conference has obtained the assistance of Raymond F. Dvorak as director of the Festival. Mr. Dvorak is director of the University of Illinois Men's Glee club and is also assistant director of the Illinois band. Bensenville was selected as the place of the Festival because of the excellent stage and auditorium accommodations.

The idea of the conference in presenting this type of Festival is to create an added interest in music and to increase the good fellowship between the students of the various schools. In all of the competitive events heretofore sponsored by the conference there was always one winner and several losers—one group went home exalted, the others downcast. In this festival all students are working toward a common end. Everyone will experience a thrill in success and no one will be defeated.

Parents Are Invited

All persons who are to participate in the events must be in Bensenville the entire day for rehearsals. The public performance is to be presented at 8 o'clock. Parents are especially urged to be present.

L. O. Bright, Antioch, is in charge of the advertising for the Festival.

GOVERNOR EMMERSON CALLS ON PRESIDENT

Governor Emmerson spent two days in Washington last week conferring with President Hoover, Secretary of War Good, the Illinois Congressional Delegation and various other persons concerning the waterways situation, including not only its navigation and transportation phases but likewise flood control, levee levels and the sanitary district problem.

The Governor was cordially greeted in Washington where he has many friends and departed with the feeling that the results of the trip had justified the long and tiresome journey.

Always known as a tireless worker, Governor Emmerson said that the time he had served as Governor were the most strenuous days of his life and that the duties of the office had proved most exacting.

He was accompanied by Henry H. Kohn of his cabinet.

FOLDERS POPULAR AS BOOTH WORKERS SELL EVERYONE ON REGION

Fox Lake Boosters to Visit Big Show Tonight

Pitted against the stiff, direct competition of other summer resort centers, the Chain O' Lakes booster representatives in the booth at the Outdoor Life and Motor Boat show which is being held in the Coliseum in Chicago this week, are putting the region over with flying colors as the happy vacation land for everyone. In the language of the showman the booth workers captained by A. M. Krahl and John Nixon, Antioch, and J. Grant Britton, Fox Lake and strengthened on Tuesday night by hustling members of the Antioch Business club and last night by a peppy Lake Villa aggregation both of which made the trip by a special Marigold Motor coach, completely stole the play away from competitors and, "wowed" the immense crowds that have streamed down the aisle and paused at the Chain O' Lakes exhibition since the show opening Monday morning.

On the main Broadway of the show, right in a commanding position where all who pass must see it, the Chain O' Lakes booth is located. It's attractively decorated with maps, stuffed birds and aquariums full of live fish that were just "caught this morning" in one of the 56 lakes of this happy playground that is less than two hours away from Chicago. You can read these messages on attention getting signs but you don't have to, for the booth workers are live ones. They aren't waiting for people to come in and ask questions, they're right out there on the firing line telling the visitors who are looking for some place to go, about Chain O' Lakes and then giving them one of the Chain O' Lakes folders to insure the follow through and final selling punch when they get home.

Plenty to See

That's the story. That's the stuff that is putting Chain O' Lakes on the resort map in this greatest of outdoor shows. The Outdoor Show is interesting—there is a lot to see and the people of Chicago, feeling the first touches of spring fever, are flocking to the show by the thousands to look over the new motor boat models and then, see where they can go for that precious summer vacation.

There are cages of wild animals from Michigan and Wisconsin, aquariums of game fish from the same (Continued on page eight)

Antioch and Vicinity Join All America In Honoring Mother

MOTHERS POSSESS JOYS AND GRIEFS ALL THEIR OWN

Character Qualities Are True The World Over

MOTHER. The word calls to mind mental pictures. A different picture to each individual. Some men and women at once think of a gray-haired mother with a kindly, wrinkled face. Others picture the mother portrayed by Whistler. Some persons think of a young, madonna type. No matter what type of mother comes to mind, there are certain traits and characteristics in all mothers.

There are things which a mother possesses that cannot be separated from her personality. Whether the mother lives or whether she has died, there are certain legacies she leaves with us.

How often you have looked at an old dish, an antique chair, or a Bible, hearing the owner proudly say: "These were my mother's!" How carefully the articles are handled! They bring back floods of memories. There is really something living about them. To the son or the daughter they express personality. The Bible, the chair, the dish—whatever the possessions may be—are somehow part of mother.

Personality Lives

But there are possessions of mother's that we cannot touch or fondle. The dish may break, the chair may be destroyed, the Bible may be lost, but there are possessions which cannot be taken from our presence. It is through them that her personality continues long after she has ceased to be with us. They are simple, majestic, and great and brand themselves humbly and effectively in our hearts.

Can anyone, no matter how cold-hearted, remain unmoved when one thinks of mother's pain, suffering, and sorrows? Different in degree to each mother, yet in quality the same the world over, but peculiar to mothers. They are hers and no one knows them as she knows them. The birth pangs which gave us life were her first gifts, and her fearless approach to the door of death was her willingness to sacrifice. Innumerable hours were given to the bundle of life which she brought into the world. Perhaps the exacting duties of the household have at times spurred her to the limit of her energies. No one else could understand them. Certainly there does not live a mother who has not secretly cried and sought comfort and solace in her meditations. Things like this we should think of on Mother's Day—and for these things should we honor mother.

Kisses Were Helpful

The smiles and kisses of mother are also possessions which have meant much to us. Kisses and smiles served as answers to many impossible questions. Remember the kiss and the smile when we came into the house with a bleeding finger or a scratched foot? What is more touching than to remember the kiss of forgiveness after we had hurt her feelings? Too, there was the kiss as she tucked us in bed.

Our training, our friends, our home-life, our education have been directly or indirectly brought about through her plans. Few mothers wish for wealth for their children above all things, but instead the sincere and earnest prayers of mothers are that their boys and girls will grow into useful and good men and women.

And what is greater than a mother's faith? Steadfast, true, and loyal—one can always depend on mother. It is superfluous to mention her love—the greatest of her possessions, the possession which embraces all others.

These are mother's sacred possessions. Whether she lives or whether she has died these are legacies she leaves with us.

No greater appreciation could her children show than that they place these virtues in their hearts where they may grow and multiply.

Mrs. Addie Williams Selected As Typical Mother In Antioch

By V. Ludel Boden

ONCE GOD has given a woman the beauties of motherhood, it will be an eternal possession. Though she lives a hundred years. Time, which eventually destroys all else, can never take away that which is hers.

Mrs. Addie Williams stands out in the mind of the writer as one of the most typical mothers of Antioch, and for this reason she was visited this week so that a feature for this Mother's Day page might be written. Mrs. Williams was busy so she wasn't asked for an interview, but the writer obtained this little sketch just watching Mrs. Williams at work.

There is a beauty about a mother and a grandmother that youth cannot boast. The countenance shows lines of a useful life—the firmness of character. Mrs. Williams possesses such an expression. For she is a typical mother. There is sweetness and patience and unshakable faith in a mother who has lived a good life.

Mrs. Williams was bending over her flowers on the sun piazza when approached. To see a woman sitting in a stately drawing room—to see her in unpleasant surroundings may mean nothing, but to see a woman who loves nature, surrounded by flowers, lends enchantment. And as Mrs. Williams talked of her flowers their companionship—and the lurking expression of sweetness was intensified as it can only be in a mother and a nature lover.

Mrs. Williams went about her work of helping put up screens, but she took time to tell of her garden, her flowers, and of an interesting collection of sea shells, plants, and animal life. There are some Indian curios, too.

"That's an Indian paint pot," Mrs. Williams said laughingly, "for you know the Indians used their rouge, too."

Mrs. Williams explained that she has quite a large collection of souvenirs which she collected at the world's fair when it was held in Chicago in 1893. She said that she had wondered if there would be any place for such an exhibit at the next Chicago fair in 1933.

"But," she said with a smile and a shrug of her shoulders, "I guess that's all just a foolish old lady's whim!" And here Mrs. Williams was calling herself old—and that's the last thing that would enter one's mind, for she has youthful ideas.

Mrs. Williams has three children living—Dr. R. D. Williams, Miss Ruth Williams, and Mrs. Elsie Schroeder. She also takes great delight in her grandchildren.

When she was talking of how some of her flowers were destroyed by passersby, sympathy was offered.

"Well, it's really nothing," Mrs. Williams said. "I have seen and experienced so many worse things that I do not think that my ruined flowers are so terrible." Mrs. Williams was not complaining—she isn't that type. If she were, she would not be a typical mother. Her face shows experience, yet motherly innocence; her eyes show firmness and conviction, yet sympathy and kindness; her dress shows pride, but not vanity. Her appearance is meaningful—strong—motherly. These things are true of Mrs. Williams—and whoever they may be, these things will probably apply to your mother. To you, she is the typical mother.

But whoever she may be—where ever she may live—remember her Sunday, May 12.

Mother

Sunday, May 12, is nationally recognized as Mother's Day. Sons and daughters at least this one time in the year stop to think and appreciate the love, care, and thoughtfulness of their mothers. Flowers, candies, small gifts of any sort, large gifts, cards, telegrams—anything that is sent means a great deal to a mother, whoever she may be. This one day is set aside for mother—she can be selfish in claiming Sunday for her very own. Christmas, Easter, Thanksgiving, and other holidays must be shared, but not Mother's Day.

To Mothers In The Beyond

There's a little green mound in the land I call home,
Where the softest May breezes are sighing;
And the call of the spring brings me back to the spot—
Where my dear little mother is lying.

Mother! This is your day!
O, how the dear old songs call up the memories!
O, how they bring back again
The low lullaby, the light touch that soothed
The brow that was aching,
The heart that was breaking.

Mother, I have brought you a flower,
See, it is white like the pure, unstained soul of you!
White as the soul that lives on,
Pure as the spirit that hovers so near,
When my cross grows too heavy

For arms that are weary.

Mother, I try to be brave,
As I climb the rough steep of the years,
But sometimes my heart seems crushed
With its pain
Or drowned in an ocean of tears.

Mother, I try to press on,
When hope rises fresh with the day
But sometimes my courage and faith
Are all gone
And almost I fall by the way.

Then through the gloom-laden mists
That over a doubting heart fall,
I catch for a moment your heaven,
Bright smile,
And hear the sweet notes of your call.

Quickly the mist disappears,
Maybe my journey's not long!
Hope's sunbeams shine bright on my tears,
And I lift up my cross with a song.

There's a little green mound in the land I call home,

To Living Mothers

Mother, I've come to talk with you,
For my heart is heavy with pain;
Just let me sit on the arm of your chair,
As I did in days gone by.
Life seemed bright for a little while,
But the shadows have come again,
And I somehow feel that you'll understand,
Where I have failed and why.

Life seems a lonely, wind-swept plain,
And love but an empty word,
And a dark cloud seems to be settling down
And hiding the brightness of day.

My heart is sick and no more responds
To the love-sweet song of the bird,
And I'm wondering why, and I've come to you,
And I wish you would teach me to pray.

I haven't forgotten the little prayer you taught me in childhood's hour:
But there's something I've missed as I've sought success in a world that doesn't care,
Something I've missed what you have gained—it isn't success or power.

Something that sparkles in your dear eyes;
I don't know what, but it's there.

Maybe you've been in this same black pit, back in the misty years
Maybe you've felt this same dark cloud, that you couldn't push away.
Tell me, mother, where did it go?
Did it burst in a shower of tears?
And was there a rainbow? Tell me, dear, tell me of yesterday.

Mother, I've come to talk with you,
For my heart is heavy with pain.
And I know you'll help me lighten its load,
As you did in days gone by.
Life seemed bright for a little while,
But the shadows have come again,
And I somehow thought you'd understand where I have failed and why.

STOP the DEATH OF BABY CHICKS

Most of these deaths can be prevented

More than one half of the baby chicks hatched this year will die before maturity because of various diseases. You can help prevent this frightful loss in your chicks by feeding INTERNATIONAL Health Chick Mash.

Besides containing nutrients necessary to life and growth, INTERNATIONAL Health Mash contains WOOF. WOOF—rescues away disease, keeps your chicks vigorous and thrifty. Restores vitality. Strengthens sickly chicks. Keeps them coming in fine condition.

WOOF is the result of years of experiment to improve poultry feeds so they will build healthier chicks and cut down the terrible yearly loss. WILMOT HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS GENOA CITY IN BASEBALL, 8 TO 4

Wilmot High school defeated the Genoa City High school baseball team on the Silverlake diamond, 8-4. Bloss allowed but two hits, while the Genoa City pitchers allowed three hits. This victory for Wilmot evens the two game series with Genoa City as Genoa City won the first game. Wilmot's remaining schedule is as follows: May 10, Williams Bay, there; May 15, Mukwonago, there; May 17, Clinton, here; May 24, Clinton, there.

The annual Junior prom will be held in the gymnasium Friday evening of this week. The music will be furnished by the Rhythm Aces of Burlington. The Juniors have spent much time in planning the event and have done much work in carrying out their decorating scheme. The calendar of commencement activities is as follows: May 10, Junior prom; May 18, alumni banquet; May 24, class play; June 11, class night; June 13, commencement; June 14, beginning of vacation.

County grade school examinations for seventh and eighth grade students were held in the high school assembly room the last two Saturdays. The Salem Township P. T. A. contest was held in the gymnasium Tuesday evening and Salem Mound school was awarded first for their playlet entry and Silverlake school for the musical number entry. A large crowd attended the program.

McDougall drove out three hits, Schnurr, E. Frank, and Getka each drove out two hits.

In the hectic seventh inning in which Wilmot scored 14 runs, every man on the team had two raps.

This game proved to be good practice for the league opening next Sunday when Wilmot meets State Line at the Wilmot park. The Pirates expect to be decked out in their new uniforms. They have a fast aggressive outfit, and deserve good support by the fans during the season.

Wilmot defeated Johnsburg 8-7 at the Johnsburg park last Sunday. A delegation of fans and baseball players attended the Inter League Baseball banquet at the Antlers hotel at Browns Lake Thursday evening.

MANZER-GULLETTE WEDDING SOLEMNIZED WEDNESDAY

Allendale chapel was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock when Marguerite Manzer, Lake Villa, became the bride of Arlee Gullette in the presence of a large group of friends and relatives. The Rev. Alsbaugh of the Lake Villa M. E. church read the impressive marriage ceremony.

The chapel was very pretty with its decorations of potted plants, ferns and apple blossoms. While the group was assembling, music was furnished by Captain Bradley on the pipe organ. Promptly at three o'clock to the wedding march from Lohengrin the bridal party entered. Miss Ruth Cribb, Antioch, a school friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She was in rose taffeta. Bridesmaids were Beulah Wickens, Lake Villa, and Muriel Potter, Gurnee, cousins of the bride. They wore yellow and green taffeta. The bridegroom was attended by Harold Asp as best man and Claude Pollock and Grover Anderson as ushers. Bojan Hamlin and Alice Dixon were flower girls. The bride was beautiful in her simple gown of white moire silk with long veil. She was given in marriage by her father. The Allendale Boys' choir sang the wedding hymn before the ceremony.

The bridal party received the congratulations of the guests in the library adjoining the chapel, and a reception followed at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Gulltete is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Manzer and a graduate of Antioch High school of the class of 1927. Mr. Gullette is an Allendale boy and both have hosts of friends. The bride holds a responsible position with the Johns-Manville plant in Waukegan and Mr. Gullette is employed by James Kerr. They will live in Waukegan where their flat is already prepared. They took a short wedding trip. Mrs. Gullette, the bridegroom's mother, has been here for some weeks and will return to her home in New York soon.

Steve Pacini, who studies art in Chicago, was home over the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Elms and Mr. and Mrs. A. Dibble were in Chicago Monday.

A Big String of Fish

YOU don't catch that proud string of speckled beauties by giving up when the throb of the first nibble is slow in coming.

It takes patience to fish. But it is a pleasure, too.

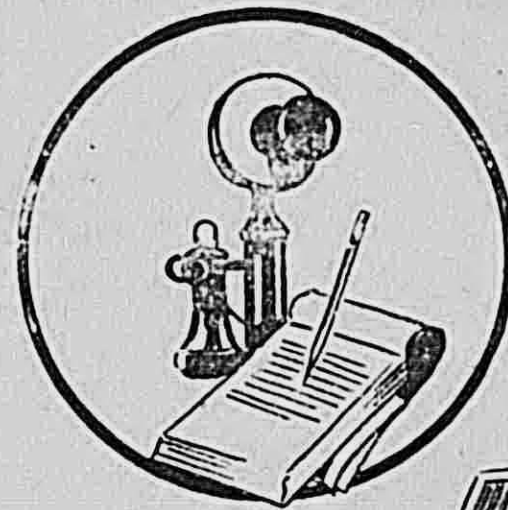

It likewise takes patience to build up a handsome bank account. There is often the temptation to give up at first, when money seems to accumulate so slowly.

But patience wins, and saving money becomes a joyous satisfaction—especially with the modern arrangements which a bank like ours makes for you.

HUGHES AND HAINES ARE TO FIGHT FRIDAY AT ANTIOCH PALACE

Garlow and Beyer Scheduled to Meet; Are Old Rivals.

There's a battle in the air! Tomorrow night Roosevelt Haines, Tribune Golden Glove winner and Frankie Hughes, Racine, will stage the wind-up bout at the Antioch Palace tomorrow night.

Old rivals, Angelo Garlow and Buddy Beyer, will meet in what promises to be a good bout. Others on the card are: Don Conn vs. Johnnie Hughes; Charley Zahnale vs. Harry Leggett; Bobbie Juhrend vs. Leo Leggett; Ted Berg vs. Ernie Krotachville; and Roy Mullins vs. Red Schneider.

Zahnale Wins

Last Friday the best fight was between Charley Zahnale, Highland Park, and Walter Siren, Swedish A. A. U. champion, Milwaukee. The Pinkie Mitchell men who came from Milwaukee all put up, good battles, however.

But to get back to the feature fight, Siren got away to a flying start in the first round, bobbing in and out to land effective left hand punches to the side of Charley's head, but near the close of the round Zahnale was showing some action and the lads were about even. The second round was easily Zahnale's. The third round was Siren's. When an extra session was started both men were going strong, still landing some heavy, hard punches which made the fight like a professional one. Siren displayed some fine footwork, but as he came to this country only recently (and can't even speak English) he has not yet learned the type of fighting Americans follow.

Don Conn and Leo Schneider filled in with an emergency bout, and it was some bout! Plenty of action—plenty of excitement—and the audience was kept on its toes. Conn landed half a dozen or so right hand punches which almost upset Schneider. Conn won.

Bauman Is Victorious

Buddy Beyer, Twin Lakes, put up a strong scrap and defeated Frank Loomis, Milwaukee. Loomis is a strong man and one of the best amateur fighters in this section of the country, and his defeat came as a surprise.

Stanley Bauman, Milwaukee, was awarded the decision over Leo Bessner, Chicago, by a technical knockout in the third round when the latter displayed a liking to sink to the canvas on one knee about the time the Milwaukeean would start sending out a couple of right hands.

In the fourth prelim, Charles Negoe, Milwaukeean with a long list of kayoes to his credit, won the decision over Gus Brand, Chicago, in three rounds.

Fred Weibel, Milwaukee, opened the evening's hostilities by pounding out an easy three round win over Leonard Olson, Chicago.

Joe Drinka, North Chicago, started out "a la Harry Greb" but left hands, started in the second round, slowed him up and he lost the decision in three rounds to Ernest Evans, Milwaukee. Evans let Drinka play himself out and then went after him and almost had him groggy near the finish.

Watch Your Feet

Asked whether people abuse their stomachs or their feet the most, Dr. William S. Sadler of the American Magazine replies unhesitatingly, "Their feet." He explains that people have had a little sense knocked into their heads about overeating and wrong eating, but precious little regarding their feet and their care.

WOMAN MAKES CHECK ON MEN; BUT --- FINDS EVERYTHING ALL 'JAKE'

with the isinglass and tinfoil.

Tinfoil! That brings to mind what Rex Alexander Bonser did. He was rather kittenish all evening and he shot paper-wads, tittered and giggled, and finally made tinfoil balls. Imagine that! And believe it or not he hit a woman (poor, helpless creature!) right in the eye causing tears to gush forth and an eyewid to swell and a black and blue bump to be evident.

J. C. James stuck more strictly to business than anyone else. He talked Chain O' Lakes—didn't even bring up his pet subject of the dam trouble.

Sam Sings Some

S. Boyer Nelson wore his flashiest tie, sang his flashiest baritone notes, alternated between dozens adm grins and enjoyed himself. Sam Tarbell, commonly referred to as Justice because he managed to get a few votes election day, told about Florida, sang vehemently, vigorously, and furiously and showed the crowd that he knew all the songs from "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep" to "Yes, We Have No Bananas." H. A. Radtke seemed dreadfully amused all the time.

Ted Paulos entertained with sketches about the "old country," the said sketches being interspersed with naps and dozes. He sat up and took notice when it came to eating, however. Same way with Fred Merrill and H. S. Roberts. Really pathetic to see those boys wrap themselves around the food. Dick Powles and a certain Mr. Waldweiler from Rogers ate at the table with Merrill and Roberts and the rapidly with which those four were shoveling in the food, one would think there was a contest of some sort. Investigation revealed otherwise, however. All were behaving perfectly naturally. The word food brings to mind radishes which Mr. Scott nibbled furiously. It is alleged, but not at all proved, that he ate all on his table (that part is true) and that he stuck some in his pockets from other tables. However, this last is not stated as a fact and the newspaper cannot be sued for libel because of it. H. Smith did a lot of ordering. At least he called the waiter often enough. Barney Naber was quiet but he seemed to be having lots of fun.

Oh, Well—!

At the booth John Nixon and Vincent Dupre were busy—John telling about the Chain O' Lakes and Vincent Dupre setting a good example of what kind of whoopee could be raised in this lake region. Some brilliant young specimen of humanity said that the way John Nixon kept stressing the nearness of the Chain O' Lakes to the loop, that by Saturday he would be saying that Antioch was in easy walking distance of Chicago. Oh, well—!

Senate Pages

The pace boys in the senate are paid $3.20 per day while the senate is in session. Their hours are concurrent with those of the senate, but it is necessary for them to report some what earlier than the hour at which the senate convenes. Their duties are those of messengers, generally. Under the laws of the District of Columbia they are required to attend school for 15 hours each week. Some attend night school and other attend classes conducted by an instructor at the capitol in the mornings.

Sirens

A couple of cute young ladies who were visiting a western city decided that they would go horseback riding. We are told, and the head groom asked one of them whether she would prefer the flat English saddle or the western saddle with a horn. "The flat saddle," said the young thing, "because we aren't going to ride in any traffic and won't need a horn."

AMUSEMENTS

Jack Wright and his Ohloans will be back to play for dance lovers Saturday and Sunday of this week and next week, according to Dick Macek of the Antioch Palace. Wright and his musicians are well known in the Chain O' Lakes.

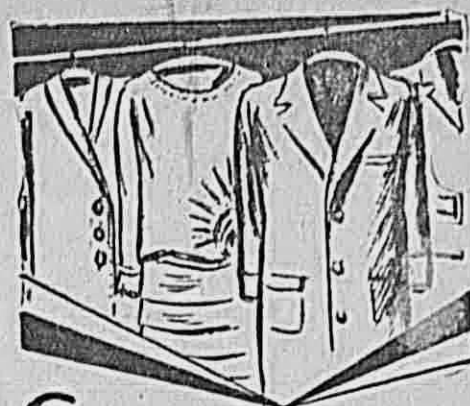

Carl Rademacher, Twin Lakes, is announcing the grand opening of his ballroom for Saturday night of this week. Mr. Rademacher has again procured the services of Jack Higgins and his Royal Purple band. There will be dancing every Saturday night, and in contrast to last year, park plan dancing will be followed.

Elephants "Right Tusked"

African elephants show a tendency to what might be called "right handedness," since their right tusks are usually worn down by digging more than the left.

No. 18

Published in the interest of the people of Antioch and vicinity by H. R. Adams Lumber Co. H. R. Adams, Editor Rex Bonser, Mgr.

The dentist is the only man who can tell a woman when to open and shut her mouth and get away with it.

If you take six oranges, two lemons, two pounds of sugar, one bottle of milk and a can of preserved pineapple, you will probably get pinched for pilfering.

The cheapest health and comfort insurance you can buy is to give us your order now for those SCREENS you will soon be needing.

As we understand it, the two things that Mr. Hoover especially wants to do is to improve our waterways and our liquor ways.

No use putting it off. If your home needs a new roof, now is the time to tell us about it. You can now get a genuine MULE-HIDE ROOF at a price that will surprise you.

If a man took the same care choosing a wife that he does in choosing a car, there wouldn't be so many divorces.

You can't raise chickens and a garden at the same time in the same place. The best way to do it, is to fence your garden and keep the chickens out. We have the fence and the posts. Let us know what you need.

Mistress: I saw the milkman kiss you this morning. I'll take the milk in myself after this. Janet: It won't do any good, mum. He promised to kiss nobody except me.

Just try it. "Low bridge," shouted the bus conductor. "Everybody to keep his seat and face to the front."

A gay little flapper up in front turned around, smiled sweetly, and said: "My dear, you know that can't be done."

Maybe a swell head is just nature's frantic effort to fill a vacuum.

An oyster, we learned, drinks 60 quarts of water daily. This, we believe, is one way you can tell the difference between an oyster and a camel.

FLOWERS FOR THE HEN

"National Egg Week" has just closed. Grocery stores in Antioch, as well as in all parts of the country, have had special egg display features. In the agriculture department of the Antioch Township High School, the romance of the poultry industry has been stressed. There is nothing more romantic or inspiring in the whole history of America than the rise to fame and popularity which the American hen has attained. The products of her industry—eggs and poultry have rapidly come to be one of the most important factors in feeding the millions of inhabitants of this land. The humble hen produces each year products valued at more than one and one quarter billion of dollars, and thus becomes one of this country's greatest assets.

Poultry was first included in the Federal Census in 1880 and since that time each year has marked a distinct increase in the number, distribution and value of the poultry industry of the United States. During the last two decades, it has jumped ahead by leaps and bounds. This great increase has been due in part to the development of the mammoth incubator, the baby chick industry and especially to the great contributions which research and science have made in developing improved methods of management, in bringing about greater production and in eliminating losses from diseases.

Twenty years ago poultry was a sadly neglected sideline on the average farm. Today the hen is looked upon as one of our most efficient branches of the farm operation. She is given better care and closer attention and consequently rewards her owner in more eggs and meat and greater returns. The last 20 years have been marked especially by the rapid development of thousands of specialized poultry farms and commercial egg farms, more especially on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, but they are rapidly being built up in the heart of the Corn Belt States, which section, including the upper Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio River valleys, is the egg basket of the nation. As our population becomes more and more intense and less acres have to feed more people, we shall expect poultry, as it has done in older countries, to continue to gain in popular favor and in prominence as an agricultural pursuit. Today the poultry industry is the sixth from the top of the list of our more valuable agricultural products. The value of poultry and eggs produced is exceeded only by dairy products, corn, cotton, hay and forage and swine.

What does the poultry industry mean to us? The humble hen possesses qualities and attributes which few of us appreciate. She is a great national asset. She is a great creator of wealth. She is economically sound. She is a most economic producer of human food. She is a universal favorite. She is the safeguard of the future. She is the producer of one of our greatest food products.

To the humble hen, of which there are more than four million on American farms, we owe a distinct debt of gratitude.

One comfortable thing in being poor is that you don't have to worry every week about the increase or decrease in brokers' loans.

This new mechanical man they call Robot is all right. Just think how handy he will be to the ward politician on election day when it comes to voting for him.

A lot of folks would rather get Uncle Sam into the League of Nations one way or another than to get into Heaven themselves.

It may be that the milkman before long will be delivering his wares in paper bottles but the bootlegger will continue to use glass, unless his stuff gets so strong it eats holes in the bottles.

Mr. Faust has been invited to visit two penmanship classes on Contest Day and then conduct a meeting to which teachers and pupils are urged to bring their problems. The first class will start at 1 o'clock, standard time.

The winning team in the magazine contest was entertained by the losers Friday night. The weather was suitable for the wiener and marshmallow roast. Charlotte Meyer and her committee were in charge.

Miss Sebora entertained her art classes Thursday with an illustrated lecture on American Artists.

Report cards will be issued early next week.

FOUR THOUSAND persons—scientists, mathematicians, technicians and their assistants—in the Bell Telephone Laboratories are constantly studying the human voice and human speech.

They study your telephone service and how to make it better. They strive ceaselessly to extend its range, its accuracy and its usefulness. In all of these things they have succeeded beyond the most sanguine hopes of a few years ago.

Lake Villa Play Cast May Give "Headstrong Joan" Another Time

By Mrs. C. B. Hamlin

"Headstrong Joan," the play presented by the Ladies' Aid society last week was well done and greatly enjoyed. Each one taking part did his or her part exceptionally well, and requests have been made for a second performance. Joan was played in a capable manner by Dorothy Freund. It was a difficult role. Edwin Kapple, as the scapegrace son was splendid. Mabel Scott as the teacher and a companion of Granny Day, and Lester Hamlin as the adopted son were good. Mrs. Manzer as Granny Day and Mrs. Avery as the Irish housekeeper were both worth the price of admission, while Al Maier and son, Billie, and Bernice Nader as Abie, Ike and Rosie were screams, and Mr. Alsbaugh took the part of the father in a very natural manner.

Special mention should be made of the orchestra under the direction of Miss McLaughlin, and which made its first public appearance at the hall Thursday evening at the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sherwood, who spent the winter in Florida, returned to their home here Friday.

Rentner and Haley, proprietors of Mil-Grand filling station and garage are building a refreshment stand adjacent to the filling station.

B. S. Hadad and C. B. Hamlin were in Chicago on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Helen Weber was in Chicago Tuesday.

Mrs. T. B. Rhoades and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Rhoades' mother in Chicago.

Mrs. Abernathy, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. William Pinch, the last few months, has returned to her home in Pennsylvania.

Ben Dicks was in Chicago all of last week on business.

Mrs. Carl Seeger went to Kalamazoo early last week to see her daughter, Elsa, who has been teaching there. Miss Elsa and a friend accompanied Mrs. Seeger home for a few days' visit before going to Marion, Indiana, where she will teach in the Veterans Government school this year.

Mrs. Carl Reinebach was in Chicago shopping for her store Tuesday.

Mrs. Holly Wokum, Waukegan, entertained 15 young women at a hospitality and handkerchief shower last Friday evening with Miss Marguerite Manzer as honored guest. Bunco was played.

Mrs. Val Weber is in Florida to enjoying a few weeks' visit with her mother and sisters here.

Mrs. William Pinch attended the Seven Colleges dinner at the Palmer house in Chicago on Thursday night, as a member of the Bryn Mawr Alumni association.

Mrs. B. J. Hooper and Mrs. Eleanor Kunzer were in Chicago Friday to attend a birthday party held in honor of their aunt.

Mrs. E. Thayer returned home last week after a ten days' stay in the county hospital.

Miss Myrtle Daube and the group of girls who constituted the Campfire group three years ago gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mar-

It's so easy to be confused in dates, isn't it? Somehow or other, Mrs. Irving Elms thought last Sunday was Mother's Day. She was so sure of it that she went to the florist's and bought a plant for Mr. Elms' mother. The flower was wrapped, taken to the Elms home, and was all ready to be delivered by Mrs. Elms when a guest who "happened in" revealed the sad but true fact that Mother's Day would be May 12. What was to be done? There seemed to be only one solution be a big, three-ring circus of merriment. Of course, Dick hadn't expected anyone to think that he would have elephants, tigers, monkeys and giraffes, but at least one person interpreted the announcements that way. Bright and early Saturday morning Mr. Macek answered the telephone. A child's voice asked: "Will you please tell me what time your circus starts tonight?" Bet some one's heart fell several feet when Mr. Macek revealed that there wasn't really a circus at all. Enough to make one lose faith in human nature, wasn't it?

CHAIN O' LAKES BOOTH POPULAR AT GREATEST OUT-DOOR EXPOSITION

places and attractive booths galore at the show. But the thing that is stopping the crowd is the fact that here at Chain O' Lakes there is everything a summer resort could offer and the whole thing is so close to be big city. The enthusiasm of the Chain O' Lakes boosters is one of the show's sensations. They're up there handing out folders with a persistence that is not annoying, and take it from this reporter, the story is being put across with a smile and a winning touch of humor that is real salesmanship. Folders are being passed out at a high rate and people are taking them home, for the old tell-tale, "discarded folders on the floor," shows the fact that the forty thousand folders are being well placed.

Out To "Sell"
Tonight 30 boosters from Fox Lake will travel in by Marigold Motor coach to the show and stage a Fox Lake night, just as the Antioch and Lake Villa representatives have done. Following the regular motor coach route as the Marigolds will follow on the new Chain O' Lakes division, they will arrive at the Coliseum to keep the Chain O' Lakes exhibition running in high gear. Laying aside all individual advertising for the big job of selling Chain O' Lakes, they, too, will join the workers at the booth on the firing line and sell the region as a whole.

All in all, the story of the Outdoor show is the old advertising story. Few persons in this day and age look around and shop. They haven't time to go around and actually visit time to go around to find the best one places in order to find the best one for that vacation. They want to be told where to go and the place that tells its story in the best selling way is the place where they are going to go and bring their friends and their friends' friends. It is the opinion of the Chain O' Lakes Boosters that the selling arguments presented on this region are good ones—that the outdoor exhibition has started the advertising of this glorious outdoor recreation center on the way with a bang. In short, the crowds are being "wowed."

ALL OF APPROPRIATION NOT SPENT; $893,000 GOES BACK TO STATE

Out of an appropriation of $1,362,000 voted by the state legislature for the work of the division of pardons and paroles two years ago for the two year period ending July 1, 1920 a total of $893,008.37 remained unexpended on April 1. This means that approximately $300,000 or more than one-half of the entire appropriation will be turned back to the state.

These figures have been revealed by Hinton G. Clabaugh, chairman of pardons and parole board.

"This department has the task of supervising the conduct of more than 4,000 convicts at large in Illinois on parole," said Mr. Clabaugh. "It is a large job. We had sufficient money to meet any contingency that might arise. We are glad that no situation arose requiring greater expenditures."

"It may surprise many of you to know that there are 960 men and women in our two major prisons for murder, that our prisons hold 1,857 convicted of robbery, 1,265 of burglary and 162 of assault to murder. Putting it another way, 69.9 of the total prison population is made up of persons convicted of crimes of violence."

"It may also interest you to know that in the last eight years 19,292 persons were sent to the prisons and reformatories of Illinois. Of these 7,612 or 39.46 per cent were from Cook county, while eight counties sent 57.15 per cent and twelve counties 63.39 per cent."

"Between July 1, 1920 and December 31, 1923, a total of 10,553 cases, men and women seeking pardon or parole, were reviewed. That involves an enormous amount of detail work. The very fact that the prison population is made up to an extent of 69.9 per cent of persons convicted of crimes of violence might indicate that the 'tough ones' are not getting out."

"And something else—the population of the prisons of Illinois since July 1, 1920, has increased 27.11 per cent. In ten years the penal population at the three major institutions has increased from $3,052 to $7,442. The present population of Joliet, Chester, Pontiac, St. Charles, Geneva and Vandalia is 9,103. That fact appears to prove that the business of crime is becoming more and more hazardous in Illinois."

Largest Palace

The largest royal palace in Europe is said to be that of the King of Spain, called Escorial and located near Madrid. It is said that it requires four days to go through all the rooms and apartments and that more than 100 miles could be covered in such a tour. The American Philosophical society estimates that it would take four days to make a complete visit to the palace.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 5.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow; but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down" (Psalms 146:3).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins; return unto me: for I have redeemed thee" (Isaiah 44:22).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science adjusts the balance as Jesus adjusted it. Science removes the penalty only by first removing the sin which incurs the penalty. This is my sense of divine pardon, which I understand to mean God's method of destroying sin" (p. 40).

tion center on the way with a bang. In short, the crowds are being "wowed."

What the New Pest Does to Oranges

Far worse than a score of hurricanes in its effect on the orange groves is the Mediterranean citrus fly that has made its appearance in Florida, especially about Orlando, where this photograph was made. President Hoover asked congress to give $425,000 to check the inroads of the pest.

SECTIONS OF ILLINOIS

FINEST SECTION OF THE STATE FOR HOMESITES

GROWING INDUSTRY

Agricultural Development Rapidly Progressing

The Antioch News in this issue, presents to the many readers a special edition devoted to a more or less biographical description of prominent firms which in various lines of business are contributing to the growth and prosperity of this section. Towns and cities, and the surrounding farming country, is built no less by the character of the business interests operating in it than by the sturdy industry of its farmers, mechanics and professional people, and thus we are assured that all our readers will be actively interested in reading the story of the progress of business firms whose efforts are tending to the common prosperity and with whom they are carrying on business transaction every day.

This patronage and loyal support of all stores and industries within the community should be a matter of pride and loyalty with every citizen. These business men make possible the prosperous and contented lives of the people of this section and they should have the liberal support of all.

In reading the "Business Review" we wish to direct your special attention to the display advertising articles concerning various business professional and manufacturing concerns. They have been written by competent newspaper men who have endeavored in preparing the articles to impress upon the minds of the readers the value of the service and goods offered in the community. No man has written an article about himself, nor his business, and we wish to urge that you read these carefully.

Not one of the firms mentioned in this issue asked for the publication of the article about their business or service, though of course each article is paid for. Each and every article has been written by a competent newspaper and publicity man who has had more than ten years' experience in writing such copy. The firms represented were solicited to permit us to run the articles. They knew nothing about it until we solicited them. By reason of the understanding among printers and newspaper men they are display advertisements because each and every one is divided by an "advertising cut-off rule." But to us, the writers of these articles, they are news articles telling our readers of the advantages of the various firms mentioned. The fact that these firms pay for these articles does not detract one iota from the value of these items in our paper. We have been very careful to permit only reputable firms to have space in this issue and we want our readers to understand that the articles, while they are paid advertisements, are really condensed news.

Dwelling Needs About 45 Gallons of Paint

For every brushful of lead-and-kill the painter spreads some miner had to dig up a shovelful of lead ore, some farmer had to cultivate several stalks of flax and some one had to tap a pine tree down in the Carolinas. Nature has truly been generous in providing the necessary ingredients for paint, but it is surprising to learn just how generous she must be in order to furnish the material for painting just one house.

Suppose this house were of typical size—25 feet by 35 feet and 20 feet high at the ridge with a sloping shingle roof. Assuming that both the inside and outside of the house have been painted, including walls and ceilings, the approximate area to be painted would be about as follows: Outside walls, 2,900 square feet; roof, 1,700; inside walls and ceiling, 5,300; total, 9,900 square feet.

For the outside and roof about 20 gallons of paint would be required, for the inside about 25 gallons would be required, making a total of 45 gallons for surface protection and beautification. Divided into its component parts, 45 gallons of paint would take 700 pounds of lead, 15 gallons of linseed oil and nine gallons of turpentine.

To secure sufficient metallic lead to make 700 pounds, it is necessary to mine a small mountain of ore, weighing some 9,000 pounds. Average lead ore as taken direct from the mine contains less than 6 per cent of pure lead, which amount is further reduced by metallurgical losses which occur during smelting.

A half-acre of flax would have to be planted to get the necessary 15 gallons of linseed oil. If properly cultivated, a half-acre will yield six bushels of flax. Flax is a touchy crop, growing best on land adapted to raising wheat. It is called a "ten-year" crop because the land upon which it is raised is not in condition to grow a second crop before ten years.

The needed nine gallons of turpentine represent a whole season's yield of 25 full-grown pine trees. Of course, the colors and drier that would be used in painting this mythical house contain lead and oil, but the amount used would not materially change the figures above.

When one goes behind the scenes in this manner, the tremendous magnitude of the painting industry becomes apparent. The steps necessary to protect with paint a house built of wood are more complicated than those necessary to procure the lumber with which to build it.

Waukegan Conservatory of Music

Modern Day School of Music in Waukegan at 5 North Genesee Street Offers Competent Instruction in Dramatic Art, Voice, Piano, Saxophone, Violin, Cello, Banjo, Hawaiian Guitar, Etc.—Music, the Greatest of All Arts Not Only Adds to the Refinement of the Home But is Appreciated and Loved by Young and Old Alike in All Walks of Life—Under the Experienced Direction of Mrs. Mary Hotchkiss Love—Special Attention Given Children Enrolled Here—Phones 740-2115.

Music is the greatest influence in the rule. But there are few among the life of mankind—the blending of notes and sounds into harmony and rhythm. Down through all history music has shown a tendency to tighten the tranquility of the peoples of the earth and it occupies an important part in the atmosphere of the home life of its inhabitants. It is enjoyed by the multitude—as harmonious rhythm seems to be born in all of us.

For music is the poetry of life, the essence of all that is refined, lovely, and beautiful. It is not possible for the majority of us to understand the composition of music, for we are not allowed to be Mozarts or Beethovens, and in studying music we do not have to set public appearances as our goal for there are few Elmans, Carusos or Galli Cures among us. Such are the exceptions rather than institutions of this section.

There is no doubt whatever that any pupil following the course of instruction given here can, with a reasonable amount of practice within a short time make real progress in piano, violin or voice work.

Special attention is given children enrolled here which wise parents will note. The utmost patience, a necessary requisite in the teaching of children, is exercised and real results are daily being achieved with beginners. The instructors are sincere in their desire to teach their pupils the essentials of music.

The officers of this institution are to be commended on the efforts they are making and the plane to which they have raised music throughout this section. Their large patronage bespeaks volumes for the appreciation the people manifest in having such a high class organization in our midst.

FOR THE GOOSE—

SOME women's tongues is like a dog's tail that wags all day, and what does it accomplish?

Husbands would like you to believe they never made any real, formal proposal. Their wives would like you to believe just the opposite.

All the world seems to be divided into people that talk and people that gives them something to talk about.

FOR THE GANDER—

Understand a woman, and you have her. But then, for the sake of peace, stop understanding her.

Don't expect a woman to remember what a good heart you got, if you walk with your cane hangin' over your arm where every step she takes, it bumps her in the shin.

There's a big difference between not knowin' what to say and knowin' but not sayin' it.

Lots of times fools rush a woman that angels fear to tread out with.
